ST-IMIER - MONT-CROSIN - TRAMELAN

This route on the heights of the Bernese Jura takes passengers from St-Imier to Tramelan, passing through Mont-Crosin. Along the road, which winds its way through forests and pastures, one can see a few farms and small houses that make up the charm of the region. Stopping in Mont-Crosin, you can enjoy a walk to admire the wind turbines, which can also be seen from the bus during the journey. The Sentiers des Monts, which links Mont-Soleil to Mont-Crosin, is easily accessible from the bus stop.
