COUPE DU CHASSERON, MOUNTAIN BIKING

The Coupe du Chasseron returns for its 35th edition on Sunday 5 May 2025. A well-established fixture on the national mountain bike racing calendar, the event is open to all and offers a range of routes. The route crosses undulating forest tracks typical of the Jura landscape.

The long course allows spectators to cheer on the riders on several occasions. The route is interesting and varied, with breathtaking views culminating at the Signal du Chasseron. As for the more popular riders, there's no need to worry about the difference in altitude, as the route is accessible to all. There will also be a fun mountain bike race for children.

There will be plenty of refreshment stations along the way.

Prizes will only be awarded in person.
