

CULTURAL HERITAGE, LE LANDERON

LE LANDERON

The medieval town of Le Landeron reveals, once you pass through one of its two fortified gates, a vast central square decorated with fountains and lime trees and surrounded by old houses. Remarkably well preserved, it is the home to one of Switzerland's most important open-air flea markets held once a year.

