CHAMBRES D'HÔTES - LA MAISON ORANGE

Ideally accessible by public transport, 15 min. from Delémont (capital of the canton of Jura) and 45 min. from Basel or Biel, Janos and Daniel welcome you in the guest suite of their cosy "orange house" in Vicques at the entrance of the picturesque Val Terbi.

Located on the edge of the village in a peaceful residential area, it is the ideal location for a stroll or hike in the adjacent forests on foot or by bike. From the Raimeux hilltop (1302 m) you can see the majestic peaks of the Bernese alps, while from the Hohe Winde (1204 m) you can look out over the Rhine basin and the city of Basel.

As a guest of the "orange house", you enter the building through a common entrance and subsequently benefit from a separate floor with two rooms of 12 m<sup>2</sup> each, completely renovated and tastefully furnished as well as equipped with a TV and Wi-Fi. A kitchenette allows you to prepare meals and have breakfast in peace. A living area invites you to read and listen to music, and the large private balcony offers you a breathtaking view of the village and its surroundings. A private bathroom with WC / shower completes the infrastructure of the upper floor.

On request, you have the possibility to share dinner with Janos and Daniel. You may also use the jacuzzi when they are present.

Free parking for your car is available on the premises, as well as bicycles for your excursions.

So if you want to relax in a family setting or take advantage of the favourable geographical location for your private or professional activities, Janos and Daniel offer you the ideal place to do so.
